THE NARS 2017 COMPETENCY FRAMEWORK

Every MBBCh graduate is shaped around 6 core roles — 65 competencies in total

I

Health Care Provider

Delivers safe, quality, patient-centered care from history to management plan

II

Health Promoter

Prevents disease and empowers individuals & communities to stay well

III

Professional

Upholds ethics, integrity, confidentiality and the law in every encounter

IV

Scholar & Scientist

Grounds clinical reasoning in solid basic and clinical science

V

Health Team Member

Collaborates, leads and adds value within the health care system

VI

Lifelong Learner

Reflects, researches and keeps growing throughout a medical career

WHO YOU'LL BE AS A GRADUATE

8 attributes every medical graduate must demonstrate on Day One

1

Maintain Health & Wellbeing

Work to maintain health and promote human wellbeing

2

Professional & Ethical

Behave professionally and adhere to medical ethics

3

Safe, Patient-Centered Care

Focus on primary health care and common community problems

4

Doctor-Patient Relationship

Value and work to establish and maintain this bond

5

Effective Team Player

Work with other health professionals, respecting their roles

6

Part of the Health System

Use managerial & leadership skills to add value to the system

7

Community Contributor

Contribute to the development and empowerment of the community

8

Lifelong Learner

Pursue continuous professional development and research